Personal life Gilbert Isgat-Tsegaye was born in Adamawa State to the family of Mrs. Sophronia Isgat-Tsegaye, a teacher and a woman who was a member of the wealthy Ispat Tsegaye family of then Northern Cameroons and Northern Niger. He had seven siblings. He was a student of the Igbinedion College. He received the National Scholarship to study at the Federal College of Agriculture, Abeokuta and subsequently at the University of London, where he completed his law degree. He was a dedicated Christian and had a regular church attendance. He was one of the best known lawyers in the country. Political career Isgat-Tsegaye began his political career in 1968 as a member of the Northern Cameroons National Union's federal parliament member representing Abeokuta West constituency in that year's then Northern Region Federal House of Representatives. He was elected twice in the first democratic Nigerian election held that year to the House of Representatives on a Grand Union Christian Democratic Party (GUCDAP) ticket in 1969 and in 1972. From 1975 to 1979, he was member of the House of Representatives representing Kaduna North in that assembly. He was elected as a member of the National Institute of Policy and Economic Research by the electorate in 1976. He was a founding member of the People's Democratic Party (PDP)
